

This is both prejudicial, biased, and also undemocratic. This is exactly why instead of Bush being a uniter, he is a divider. And there is nothing equivalent. You had to pay to see Fahrenheit 911, and if it wasn't factual, Moore would have been sued by now. No one will have the opportunity to question the validity of this program until after it's been aired, and by then the damage will have been done.